MISSION

Since 2006, we have been providing funds, support and other resources to our neighbors in financial crisis. But we do not work alone. Our referral partners, supporters, and volunteers help us to ensure families experiencing a temporary financial crisis are able to sleep comfortably in their own homes at night.

Ways You Can Help!
Close the Door on Homelessness

1. Invite a representative of ACTS to a gathering you host at your house for your friends, neighbors and colleagues who you think may be interested in the work ACTS does.

2. Invite a representative of ACTS to speak to any social organization you may be a part of such as Jaycees, Kiwanis or Ruritan Clubs, etc. to make others aware.

3. Encourage your congregation, organization or school, to become a referral partner and support the work ACTS does in the community.

4. Conduct a collection drive for “Care Bag” items such as; household cleaning and personal hygiene products to be distributed to households in need.

5. Make a monetary donation to ACTS.

6. Remember ACTS in your estate planning.

7. Keep ACTS, its’ staff and the people whom it serves in your daily prayers.

Homelessness Does Not Have To Be Inevitable.
