Thank You for Considering Becoming a Donor

The mission of ACTS is to provide funds, support, and other resources to our neighbors in financial crisis, helping them to live sustainable, self-sufficient, and dignified lives.

Your support means hundreds of men, women, and children living in the Greater Richmond community, will receive the financial assistance and access to resources they need in order to maintain stable housing, utilities, and transportation.

During the last fiscal year, ACTS received 1,429 referrals and was able to provide assistance to 1,360 households in our community.

Because of your generosity, ACTS will continue to provide a compassionate response to our neighbors, who are experiencing a temporary financial crisis, by providing them with the resources they need in order to overcome hardship.

On the following page, please complete the Silent Auction Donor form.
